Inclusion by design: Why we all matter

AFSA propose to work with Kent FRS and other partners to design the Spring conference of 2020 to help fire and rescue services and the HMI/NFCC answer and identify solutions to support the three principal questions used to inspect fire and rescue services:

- How effective is the service at keeping people safe from fire and other risks?
- How efficient is the service at keeping people safe from fire and other risks?
- How well does the service look after its people?

In addition

- How can we support a more inclusive fire service leadership culture?

The conference programme is being developed and booking information is available by emailing afsafrs@yahoo.co.uk
